

Illawarra Division of General Practice Community Committee Nomination Form

The Illawarra Division of General Practice (IDGP) is a local organisation that supports and represents GPs. It undertakes a range of activities to improve the care offered by GPs to their clients.

The Community Consultative Committee (or Community Committee) is made up of consumer representatives and GPs who get together on a regular basis to discuss activities of the Division and to work to enhance health in our community (for more information regarding the Community Committee please refer to the document “Terms of Reference”).

Four members of the Community Committee will retire on 30 November 2006. Nominations to fill these positions are invited for the term 1 December 2006 to 30 November 2008.

Please use this form to submit your nomination. Please use the document “Nomination Information Sheet” to assist you with your submission.

Conditions of Participation

Meetings of the IDGP Community Committee are held on the fourth Tuesday of every two months, from 7.00pm – 9.00pm at the IDGP office in Wollongong. A light supper is provided. Relevant meeting dates for 2007 are 23 January, 27 March, 22 May, 24 July, 25 September and 27 November. It is a requirement of the IDGP that committee members attend at least 75% of scheduled meetings. All members of the Community Committee are reimbursed a sitting fee of $25 per hour for attendance at committee meetings. In addition, all incoming members are expected to attend an initial orientation and training session after their appointment to the committee. There will not be a payment for attendance at this session.

I acknowledge that I have read and understood the above explanation of conditions of participation in the IDGP Community Committee. Having done so, I wish to nominate for a position on the Community Committee and am willing to undertake the role of a consumer representative on this committee.
